Project Questions

About the Project

In this section, we are interested to learn more about your project, how you will deliver it, and what public policy challenge your project addresses.

Although the focus is primarily on NSW, we are interested in understanding the wider relevance of your research to other jurisdictions including Commonwealth Government.

- 01 What is the full title of your proposed project? (Maximum 25 words)
- 02 Briefly outline your proposed project, summarising its aims, and anticipated outcomes, with reference to the public policy challenge it will address. (Maximum 300 words).
- 03 Outline how (i) your proposed project relates to a public policy challenge facing the NSW Government and (ii) how your project could positively address that policy challenge and bring benefits to the people of NSW. (Maximum 600 words).

Please include evidence that your project will be of interest to policymakers – see JMI resource here.

You may attach additional information as evidence (max. 2 pages) but please avoid uploading large reports or documents.

About the Project

- 04 Summarise (a) the project methodology (with reference to any previous research and the team's expertise), (b) key activities and (c) project milestones. Please include an indicative timeline which includes clear information on how/ when you will engage with key stakeholders including policymakers during the project. (Maximum 600 words).

You can provide a Gantt chart or other visual aids to support your response (the same word limit applies).

Supporting documents should be pdf, excel, word, or ppt.

Communicating your insights to maximise impact

In this section, we want to understand how you plan to communicate your insights to policymakers to maximise their impact. If you do not currently have links to relevant policymakers, JMI can help you make these connections.

01 Beyond the JMI Policy Insights Paper, please describe how you plan to communicate your research insights to a policy audience. (Maximum 200 words)*

*Note: JMI will support you to disseminate your work to a policymaker audience. However, we would like to understand what communication methods are most relevant to your project. Examples might include interviews, a podcast, op-eds, an invite-only policy briefing, a roundtable or a public event.

02 Do you, or your project team, have existing relationships with relevant policymakers within the NSW Government? (Yes/No)

If Yes: Please describe how you are already engaging with these policymakers (Maximum 200 words)
